GIVE PEACE A CHANCE

RELIGIOUS LEADERS PLAN CONCERT IN FIGHT AGAINST TERROR

EXCLUSIVE

By Rudi Abdallah

havering@yellowad.co.uk

THE EAST London community is organising its own fight against terrorism with an inter-faith peace concert.

Multi-faith leaders have begun to organise the concert they hope will be aired at Ilford Town Centre in August.

Wilson Chowdhury, chairman of the Ilford-based British Pakistani Christian Association, said: "Several leading Muslim community leaders have agreed, as have Christian, Sikh and Hindu, at a time when fears regarding an increase in local radicalisation have reached a peak."

Mr Chowdhury's proposal, in response to the London Bridge and Borough Market attacks, has been welcomed by a diverse range of local religious figures.

Sheikh Khalid, leader of the Al Bayan Welfare Centre, Green Lane, has agreed to attend and support the event.

Ranbir Singh, leader of the Hindu Human Rights Group, said: "It's important for us to come together and root out the extremists in our ranks. They use religion as an excuse but they could attack anybody. We must embrace shared values, and emphasise what we have in common."

Sajid Hussain, ambassador of peace at the Minhaj ul Quran

International, based in Forest Gate, blasted the terrorists, calling them 'the dogs of hell'.

He said: "We as Muslims clearly have a stance not only to condemn this heinous act but stand against any such act to save our future generations. We have already done peace works in the area under the banner of Minhaj ul Quran International whose leader issued a 600 page fatwa against terrorism and suicide bombing."

"We are not willing to pray at their funeral, as 130 imams said after the London Bridge attack. This will give terrorists a message that the Muslim community does not support them and they will not go to heaven, but instead hell."

Maria Jarrett, member of the Gateway Community Church said: "Our church is behind this event 100 per cent. Sometimes people don't know there is help and support. We are here and we care."

WRITE ON: David Williams beat nine other finalists

Dagenham student scoops first prize in literary award

A YOUNG writer who studies in Dagenham received top prize in a national literary award in a surprise presentation at his school on Tuesday, June 20.

David Williams, 12, beat nine other finalists to win the National Young Writers' Award for his story about a robot in 3017 put together from different scrapyard parts.

He won a trip to Disneyland, £500 of books for All Saints Catholic School and Technology College, and an award presented by author Steve Backshall.

The young writer said: "I feel so happy. Winning the National Young Writers' Awards is one of the things that'll help me prepare to be an author. I can't believe I have accomplished it, I've written something worth reading!"

Join Fab Four on a magical history tour

BEATLEMANIA is set to sweep through Hornchurch and lovers of the Fab Four are invited to celebrate the 50th anniversary of The Beatles' hit song Yesterday during a special concert.

The Magic of The Beatles comes to The Queen's Theatre, on July 10 and 11 and the venue is offering a lucky reader the chance to win a pair of tickets to this hit stage show.

The year 1966 saw John Lennon and Paul McCartney come of age as songwriters - The Beatles' 11th EP, Yesterday, and seventh studio album, Revolver, both topped the charts.

This lavish musical trip down memory lane promises to return music fans to this golden era with fantastic costumes, brilliant vocals and incredible musicianship.

From their mop-top roots to the psychedelia of Sgt Pepper, it is packed with more than 30 chart-toppers and is one of the most authentic Beatles shows you will ever see - even down to original guitars and amps used by the band.

Yesterday with The Magic of the Beatles celebrates the music of the most famous band in the world.

For more information visit

queens-theatre.co.uk or call the box office on 01708 443333.

For your chance to win a pair of tickets to see the show on Monday, July 10, just answer the following question.

Q: In which year did Yesterday top the charts?

A: 1965

B: 1966

C: 1967

To enter the competition telephone your answer - A, B or C - to 0901 307 1674 along with your name, address, telephone number and email.

Alternatively text YAM-AGIC (space) followed by A, B or C, and your name, full address and email to 63333.

Calls cost 50p per call plus your phone company's access charge. Calls from mobiles will cost considerably more. Texts cost 50p plus your standard network rates. If you do not wish to receive details on any other products or services, text EXIT at the end of your message. Lines close on Thursday, June 29. Entries received after the closing date will not be counted but may still be charged.

Service Provider: JMedia UK Limited, RH16 3EG. Tel: 020 7720 7130.

Man in court for terror offences

A MAN from Waltham Forest was due to appear in court charged with terror offences.

Irfan Khan, 33, of Walthamstow, was charged on Tuesday, June 20, with seven counts of possession of a record of a kind likely to be useful to someone committing or preparing to commit terrorism.

He was due to appear in custody at Westminster Magistrates' Court as the Yellow Advertiser went to press.

BMJ employee died of drugs overdose

A MAN from South Woodford who worked for the British Medical Journal's marketing and sales department died from a drugs overdose, a coroner has ruled.

Barry Smith, 41, of Woodford Road, died on November 24, 2016, from cardiorespiratory arrest caused by mixed drug consumption.

The coroner recorded that Mr Smith, "in a moment of distress and high emotion", went to his bedroom and took "a small quantity of lawful medication" for "reasons which are not clear".

Block check

Fire safety assessments after Grenfell tragedy

BARKING and Dagenham Council has been reviewing fire safety assessments and cladding to reassure residents following the Grenfell Tower blaze.

Checks are being carried out to ensure blocks are safe and residents have been assured that none of the blocks have the same cladding as Grenfell Tower.

A council spokesperson confirmed: "The style of cladding used on Grenfell Tower has not been used on any council-owned housing blocks in Barking and Dagenham."

They added: "Four of our blocks do have cladding (Oldmead House, Bartlett House, Mersea House and Colne House), but this is not the same type as the cladding used on Grenfell Tower. Our cladding is a different material, not aluminium composite material, and is fitted in a different way to the cladding on Grenfell Tower."

"We are also checking the type of cladding used on other non-residential buildings in the borough"

Inspections were completed on Wednesday, June 21.

Fire risk assessments carried out more than three months ago in tower blocks taller than eight storeys have been reviewed.

Housing officers have visited people in blocks of six storeys and above.

The council vowed to work with the London Fire Brigade to ensure tenants in high-rise accommodation are safe.

Other councils in east London have reassured residents with safety checks.

The Met Police said 79 people are dead or missing presumed dead following the Grenfell Tower fire in north Kensington on Wednesday, June 14, which also left hundreds homeless.

To donate to those affected by the fire, visit www.beta.redcross.org.uk/appeal/

■ FIREFIGHTERS tackled a blaze at an industrial estate in Dagenham on Saturday.

Around 60 firefighters and officers dealt with the fire at an industrial estate off Kemp Road, where an industrial unit was alight.

Eight fire engines and two aerial ladder platforms from stations including Dagenham, Barking, Havering and Hornchurch were at the scene.

The London Fire Brigade was called at 10.13pm and the fire was under control two hours later.

Duo convicted for helping prisoner

A WOMAN from Ilford has pleaded guilty to harbouring a prisoner who absconded from HMP Pentonville.

Kelly Baker, 22, of Friars Close, will be sentenced at Blackfriars Crown Court on July 3.

Chelsea Gibson, 25, of Four Seasons Close, E3, pleaded guilty to assisting an escaped prisoner and will be sentenced at the same court on the same day.

Both pleaded guilty in connection with the escape of Matthew Baker, 29, and James Whitlock, 32, from prison on November 7, 2016.

The two convicts were later found and arrested.

Baker was sentenced on Thursday, June 15, at Blackfriars Crown Court to 30 months in prison to run consecutively with the minimum term for the life sentence he is currently serving.

Whitlock was sentenced at the same court on the same day to 24 months in prison to run consecutively to his current custodial sentence. Both men pleaded guilty to escaping from prison.

● A DAGENHAM man with a history of addiction died from a drugs overdose, a coroner has ruled Roderick Sudbury, 55, of Longbridge Road, died at his home on September 30, 2016, after he 'voluntarily ingested' a mixture of drugs on top of his methadone.

● A BARKING man will appear at the Central Criminal Court charged with terror offences.

Khalid Javed Baqa, 52, is charged with the production and distribution of extremist material encouraging others to commit acts of terrorism on Wednesday, June 14.

He was remanded in custody at Westminster Magistrates' Court and will appear at the Central Criminal Court on June 30.

● A MAN who threw himself in front of a train for unknown reasons showed 'bizarre behaviour' after taking drugs in the days leading up to his death, a coroner ruled.

Horatiu Todea, 27, of Tavistock Avenue, Walthamstow killed himself by jumping in front of a train at Blackhorse Road Tube station at 2.30pm on November 30, 2016.

Mr Todea's friends noticed 'bizarre behaviour' after he consumed MDMA, ketamine, cannabis and three unknown pills in the days leading up to his death.

● A RETIRED lecturer from Walthamstow died in a fire at his home he could not escape due to his 'limited mobility'. Ian Forsyth, 83, of Hervey Park Road, was found dead with severe burns at around 6pm on December 1, 2016. A fire, probably caused by a dropped cigarette or match, the coroner found.

Students brighten up Riverside

YOUNG artists at George Carey Primary School in Barking brightened up the borough with a brand new riverside mural.

The artwork, unveiled on Monday, June 12, was part of one of Europe's largest regeneration projects.

Pupils designed the welcome sign. It was then done completely by Wood Street Walls, an east London arts organisation, and Barking Riverside London.

See how Hayes Country Park turns dreams into reality for the over-50s

TUCKED away in a picturesque corner of the Essex countryside, in beautiful surroundings and with all major amenities close by, it's easy to see why so many people have made Hayes Country Park their first choice for park home living.

As you cast your eyes around the park, and view the homes on the banks of the River Crouch, or the lanes and meadows, you can see what makes this park so extra special.

While the homes may be ultra-modern there is still an old fashioned commitment to living in a community where people still care and look out for each other, where a smile and wave each morning is common place and you know your neighbourhood is safe and secure with the 24-hour security and a dedicated park manager and staff who are available in the office seven days a week.

The opportunity to experience the very best location in the area, combined with real home comforts with sleek and contemporary styling, a lively social scene, which allows you to do as much or as little as you please, it is easy to see why a smile comes so easily to the faces of those who live here at Hayes Country Park – it really is nothing short of idyllic.

To see for yourself how like-minded people are living the dream and have found their lifestyle choice visit us at our open weekend from June 24-25.

We are also able to offer you a part exchange plan making the selling of your property very easy.

There has never been a better opportunity to fulfil your dreams of luxury park living in the Essex countryside. Hayes Country Park really is turning dreams into reality.

We can give you:

- Full market value for your own home
- No estate agent fees
- No stamp duty
- No chain
- Fast and efficient service

You are only 30 minutes from Chelmsford and Southend, and a mere 15 minutes away is Wickford, which has a train station giving links to London and the UK.

EAGLES MISS OUT ON FINAL

Cricket

Essex Eagles v Notts Outlaws
Royal London One-Day Cup semi-final

Brian Jeeves reporting from the Cloudfm County Ground Notts Outlaws: 373/5 (49.3
overs) beat Essex Eagles: 370/5 (50 overs) by five wickets

ESSEX Eagles missed out on a place in the final of the Royal London One-Day Cup after Notts Outlaws produced the highest run chase in English domestic one-day cricket to win by five wickets at Chelmsford.

Having won the toss and elected to bat, the Essex opening pair of Varun Chopra and Alastair Cook made swift progress, putting on 50 inside the first eight overs.

Former England skipper Cook passed his own half-century in just 53 balls, including nine boundaries. Chopra was first to depart on 23, brilliantly caught by Notts wicketkeeper Chris Read, Steven Mullaney the man to profit with the ball, the partnership had yielded 87.

Tom Westley reached 300 one-day runs for the season as the hosts continued to score at a steady rate. However, the right-hander was soon back in the pavilion after hitting 33 off 23 balls, Samit Patel claiming his first wicket, thanks to a catch from Brendan Taylor.

Stuart Broad removed Ravi Bopara for 16, Read again taking the catch. But Cook was clearly in the mood, reaching his century off 95 balls, his third one-day ton of the campaign, as Essex continued to progress at more than six an over.

Cook and Ryan ten Doeschate continued to motor, with the Essex captain reaching his own 50 as the pair put together a fourth wicket stand of 98. Cook was eventually snared in the gloves of Read off a delivery from Patel for 136, then Ashir Zaidi became Broad's second victim, leaving the host's of 295/5.

James Foster joined ten Doeschate, forging a useful partnership that yielded 75.

Ten Doeschate became the home side's second centurion, reaching three figures off just 64 balls, including five sixes.

The Dutchman finished unbeaten on 102, while Foster reached 27* as Essex posted a healthy 370/5 from their 50 overs. Patel with 2/51 was the pick of the Notts attack, while Broad chipped in with figures of 2/56.

The visitors were going to have to pull off something extraordinary in order to progress, and so it proved. However, much to the sellout crowd's delight, Michael Lumb was removed in the second over, caught by Simon Harmer off the bowling of Jamie Porter, as the Notts response got off to an unsteady start. Nevertheless, the Outlaws possess a formidable batting line-up, Riki Wessels and Alex Hales made swift inroads into the Essex total, reaching 73 before Porter emphatically bowled the latter after he had hit a quickfire 39.

50 in 53 balls:

Right-arm medium-fast bowler Porter was clearly fired up and carrying the fight for the home side, taking his third wicket shortly after to see off Wessels, who played onto his own stumps, leaving Notts on 80/3.

Taylor and Patel proved to be a thorn in the side of the Essex attack. The Notts pair seemed comfortable, putting on 95 before a huge mix-up saw Taylor comically run out by Porter for 62.

Patel and Mullaney both continued to move along comfortably scoring at 7.40 an over ensuring the match was now in Notts' favour.

Incredibly, all-rounder Patel became the third player in the match to pass three figures following a delightful knock. And the drama kept coming as Mullaney followed suit, reaching his milestone with a towering six and off just 71 balls as the visitors appeared to be honing in on a final appearance.

There was still time for Mullaney to fall, caught Foster off the bowling of Neil Wagner for 111, but the visitors had done enough. Perhaps fittingly, Patel brought the curtain down on a memorable encounter with a boundary, sending Notts to their first final since 2013.

Speaking after the match, Essex captain ten Doeschate said: "I really don't have words to describe how I feel and I think the whole team feel the same way. You'd like to think that what we've been through in the last few years we'd have learnt our lessons."

"I'd like to start again by winding the clock back three and a half hours. At that point, you'd think there is no way you could lose that game. I don't think we could have batted much better than that.

"With the ball, there are a lot of questions that need to be answered and reviewed, what we said we were going to do and what we did. I don't know exactly why that was the case.

"The guys who have lead the line before, Harmer and Wagner, weren't maybe as effective today and maybe I got a few things wrong with changing them around.

"You need to be smart and keep your composure. As much as it was a good wicket, bowlers who banged it in and kept bowling straight were successful. Yes, it ran away and it was a bit frantic towards the end of it. But we could have bowled a lot better than we did for 50 overs.

"There's lots to be proud of it from this campaign. I feel we developed a few of the young lads, Paul Walter and Jamie Porter in particular. Ravi's resurgence with the bat has been fantastic and obviously Cookie piling on the runs.

"We've only lost two games, one by one run, the other not being able to defend 370, so that's a positive. The Championship is going really well so that is a big thing for the club."

Notts century-maker Mullaney said: "A day out at Lord's – what more would you want from a one-day season."

"Within five days we have played on two of the best one-day pitches I have ever played on. It was a great pitch and credit to Essex for putting on that pitch and putting on a fantastic day's cricket.

"We knew it was important to get off to a good start and then every batter came in. Everything had to go our way and luckily it did.

"I got some added responsibility coming in at five until Alex came back today, then I was in at six. So it has been nice to repair Mooresy and Ready for the extra responsibility."

Of the finale, Mullaney said: "That is the most nervous needing six off just 10 balls and getting to the last four. But it doesn't matter as they took it off the last ball.

"In our team meetings, we are always saying we need just one more run than the opposition and that is what we have done twice this week. It was a fantastic chase and we will be very confident going to Lord's on July 1.

"I don't care who we get in the final. They are both great teams and both pose an equal amount of threat. We're confident of taking anyone at the minute."

Non-league round-up

Daggers snap up striker Cheek

By Brian Jeeves

NATIONAL League promotion hopefuls Dagenham & Redbridge have signed striker Michael Cheek from Braintree Town. The 25-year-old frontman links up with the Daggers on a two-year deal after reportedly turning down the opportunity to play in the Football League.

Cheek, who has enjoyed spells with Heybridge Swifts, Stanway Rovers and Chelmsford City, hit 25 goals during the 2016/17 campaign, but was unable to prevent relegation to the National South.

Meanwhile, Daggers head of recruitment and first team coach Terry Harris will be leaving the club to join Boreham Wood as assistant manager.

National League South outfit Chelmsford City have bolstered their squad with the signing of Kudus Oyenuga, Matt Johnson, Craig Barham-Barrett and Aaron Greene. Winger Oyenuga joins Chelmsford after counting Spurs, Hartlepool United and Scottish side Greenock Morton as his previous clubs.

Former Ebbsfleet United and Margate middle-man Johnson joins City having been managed by Rod Stringer at Bishop's Cleeve. Impressive performances at the ProKit UK Stadium led to a move to Fleet and, since playing at Stonebridge Road, the midfielder appeared for Margate before signing for City.

Barham-Barrett began his career with Charlton Athletic before being released and going to Eastleigh, East Thurrock United and Welling.

He returned to the Football League with Peterborough in 2008, but failed to make an appearance, returning to non-league football with Havant & Waterlooville, Sutton and Conference Premier side Macclesfield Town.

Bostik League Division One North club Canvey Island have signed six new players. Sam Collins, David Knight, Albert Levett, Teddy Nesbitt, James Walker and Luke Wilson have all linked up with Danny Heale's men.

Midfielder Collins joins from Concord Rangers, while potent striker Knight scored 17 goals in 31 appearances for Bowers & Pitsea last season.

Midfielder Levett re-joins the club after spending four years playing in the USA and former Southend United defender Nesbitt brings a wealth of experience, including spells at Great Wakering Rovers, East Thurrock United and AFC Hornchurch.

Like Nesbitt, striker Walker is a former Southend United man. Most recently he served East Thurrock United, but also represented a host of Football League clubs including Hartlepool, Bristol Rovers, Leyton Orient, Notts County, Yeovil Town and Gillingham, as well as international duty with Antigua & Bermuda.

Central defender Wilson is another former Bowers man, making 125 appearances for the Len Salmon Stadium club during a three-year spell.

Canvey's retained list is currently as follows: Marlon Agyakwa, Ryan Blackman, Ashley Dumas, Mitchell Gilbey, Conor Gough, Callum Ibe, Omarr Lawson, Jake Pitty, Steve Sheehan and Elliott Warren. Braintree Town manager Brad Quinton has added to his squad with the signings of George Sykes, Xavier Vidal, Roman Michael-Percil and Jonathan Muleba.

Sykes joins the Cressing Road outfit from Canvey Island. The one-time Barnet and Dartford man swept the board last season, picking up the Manager's Player of the Year, Players' Player of the Year and the Supporters' Player of the Year awards at Park Lane.

Attacking midfielder Vidal spent time on trial with Birmingham City, Bolton Wanderers, Brentford and Oxford United before representing Welling United, Hemel Hempstead Town and most recently, Merstham. Meanwhile, winger Michael-Percil previously played for Spurs, Billericay Town, Dulwich Hamlet and Metropolitan Police.

Muleba played at junior level for Chelsea before linking up with AFC Bournemouth. The 21-year-old also received a call-up to the Democratic Republic of Congo's Under-20 national team during 2013, featuring in a friendly against Chile. He spent time last season in the Enfield Town side that reached the Ryman League Premier Division play-offs.

Bostik League Division One North promotion hopefuls Aveley have added Jack Barry and Adam Bole to their squad. Meanwhile, Jordan Peart and Lamar Johnson have agreed to extend their stay with the club.
